- Seating will be at tables and remain seated apart from those fetching morning tea
- Masks can be removed when seated, but please wear them when going to the kitchen servery or bathroom.
- Maintain 1m distance apart if queuing.

Club Speaker: David Kilsby

Guest speaker: Ian Dunwoodie, speaking on his international travels. Introduced by Judi Lee thanked by John Lee

From President Neil:

Hello everyone,

I would like to thank on everyone's behalf, our outgoing President and Secretary for doing such a great job, and for their ongoing support. I am sure the new committee will keep the wheels turning smoothly. Just remember, that the Rebus Club of Gulf Harbour is your club and I look forward to seeing you all at next week's club meeting.

All the best.

KEY ACTIVITIES AT OUR MARCH CLUB MEETING

Guest speaker Garry Phillips enlightening club members on genealogy and what it can do for you

2022 Club membership subscription: this is $15.00 per person for 2022 and is now due for payment. Please pay direct to our internet bank account (this is the best way): 12-3084-0029743-00 or see our Treasurer Keith Handley at the Club meeting for alternative.

TRIPS AND EVENTS: subject to relevant COVID restrictions on the day

25th APRIL: Proposed trip to Mangawhai/Mangawhai Heads: Leaving Edith Hopper car park at around 9:00am, we will car share. Morning coffee/tea at Bennetts Chocolate factory, then Mangawhai museum, then lunch. Bring your own finger food lunch plate to share and join Jean Holgate at her home at Mangawhai Heads. Tea/coffee provided. Interested persons can get full details at Club meeting 13th April and we will collect your names.

Wednesday 25th May: Proposed combined bus trip to Whangarei. Book now!

This is a combined trip with the Rebus Men's Club of Hibiscus Coast.
